

Discovering Real Policy Deployment

Designed for:

- Any organization Implementing Lean or advanced policy deployment
- Executives interested in methods for transforming organizational culture
- Leaders looking to improve organizational competitiveness in an era of fast marketplace change

Description:

This one day workshop is designed for those interested in learning about the true principles of policy deployment and how these principles can be used to drive a high quality, organic form of policy deployment in any organization.

What the Attendees will Learn:

- To recognize how your organization perceives its current strengths and values its present benefits
- To adjust and tailor communications so everyone comes on board with plans for change
- To successfully incorporate implementation tools such as the X matrix, annual Hoshin, A3 forms, and the roles and responsibilities matrix
- Keys for successful cross-functional teamwork and problem solving
- Methods for driving fast, smooth, high quality, positive change
- The necessary quality management practices and behaviors for delivering precision results

Who Should Attend?

- Executives
- Lean Leaders
- Improvement leaders
- Technical managers responsible for Lean
- Department and functional managers accountable for Lean success

Agenda

- |            |  |
|------------|--|
| 8:00-9:00  | Beyond Japanese methods and tools  |
| 9:15-11:45 | Getting started - building commitment and cooperation from the start             |
| 1:00-3:30  | Along the way - managing a fair and equitable distribution of innovative effort  |
| 3:45-5:00  | Involving everyone - delivering high quality results and transformational impact |

